HOW TO TREAT A TROUBLESOME CORN.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN LYONED

Two Nervy Men Save a Chicago Magistrate's Life.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—"Back! Stand back! The first one who comes over that railing is a dead man!"

With these words and with a revolver in his hand to make them good, Attorney John Trainer, assisted by Constable Henry De Young, saved Justice Peter De Young from being mobbed in his own courtroom in South Holland, in the "tacton town" ship. The demonstration against the magistrate was brought about as a result of the justice's refusing to deal leniently with Jacob Fricman, who had been arrested on a charge of conducting a "blind pig."

When the rush was made toward the magistrate Attorney Trainer and Constable De Young jumped to the justice's side and drew their revolvers. They commanded the crowd to fall back but their orders were only partly obeyed. Then the attorney for the defense asked for a change of venue and it was granted and the magistrate signed the papers, while his two friends stood over him with their revolvers.

Albion Coming Here.

It is expected that the steamer Albion scheduled to sail tomorrow for Honolulu, will be given a hearty welcome by the islanders. The little vessel has been fitted with a refrigerating plant of large capacity and, it is said, will engage in the business of carrying certain kinds of perishable freight from here to Honolulu. These will include eggs, butter and fresh meats, which have always commanded a high price there, at times being out of reach of people of ordinary means.—San Francisco Chronicle, Nov. 19.

On November 16th New York State had a great snowstorm.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will remain in the office of prime minister of Canada. The legislative assembly of New South Wales, November 14, passed the old age pension bill to a second reading.

Ah Wing, a Chinese prizefighter, has been giving exhibitions in San Francisco.

One share of the Carnegie Company stock sold for $1,500—$500 above par value.

A rockslide occurred in Ouray, Col., November 13, which wrecked many houses.

A fleet of revenue cutters bound from New York to Cuba, has arrived at Miami, Fla.

Jeffries and Sharkey are matched for a fight, and the winner will take the entire purse.

Fitzsimmons refuses to fight Jeffries, but says he will back Ed Dunkhorst against him.

The floods in Calcutta caused 591 houses to collapse; 23 persons were killed and 47 injured.

The new cable to the Netherlands will expedite the delivery of American cablegrams via London.

Marcus Daly's $40,000,000 has been left to his widow, to be held in trust by her for the four children.

A freshman in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology was killed November 16 in a cane rush.

The Methodist general missionary commission is in favor of missionaries entering China at all hazards.

The Society for the Suppression of Vice in New York will soon begin pool-room and gambling house raids.

The British Government will neither purchase the West India and Panama Cable Company, nor subsidize the company.

J. T. B. Arnold, son of Sir Edwin Arnold, has been committed for trial on a charge of misappropriating trust funds.

The directors of the Mechanics' Institute, San Francisco will make an experiment in State circulation of its books.

The Berkeley team outclassed the sagebrush State athletes, and won the second annual inter-collegiate football match.

NICE BABY

All babies are "nice," to their mothers.

We all love children. Great big men, with hard hands, have soft hearts for helpless new-comers to earth with the smile of heaven fresh on their innocent faces. No man is too high or low, too proud or humble, too busy or idle, too good or bad, too great or small—except a few very small mean men—to throw up their hats at the sight of a plump little cherub; or to pity a thin one.

Plumpness and thinness are accidents. Nature is bountiful; parents want to be. Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil corrects their mistakes.
